The musical score is written for Sopraninoblockflöte in treble clef with a common time signature (C). The tempo is marked 'Andante'. The score consists of three staves. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a common time signature. The second staff starts at measure 10, indicated by a '10' and a small '8' (likely a page or system number). The third staff starts at measure 18, indicated by a '18' and a small '8'. The music features a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, with a repeat sign and first/second endings at the end of each staff. A large, stylized, maroon watermark 'EUSONO' is overlaid diagonally across the entire page, from the top left to the bottom right.
